

Ordering:

As of Jan. 10th, 2011, the new cart system is in place to make ordering easier. The cart does not currently have a shipping option. Once I receive your order I will contact you and we can arrange shipping or pickup options then.

Availability of coffees subject to change without notice.

All my coffees are roasted to order. I don't specify a roast level on any of my coffees because I try to roast each individual bean to the level that brings out the best flavor. I can roast lighter or darker upon request.

Most orders will take 2-3 days. Rush orders available. Just ask.

Shipping:

Shipping is available. Price depends on quantity ordered, although I have found that I am able to cram up to 2 lbs in a Priority Mail Flat Rate envelope, truly putting to test their motto, "If it fits it ships." The charge for the Flat Rate envelope is $5.99 with a 2-3 day transit time anywhere in the US.

Anything over 2 lbs. will get a shipping quote after I receive the order.

Payment:

I accept cash, check (as long as it's good), money order, PayPal, and credit cards processed by Paypal.
